The DDTR talked with Ed Proctor regarding the proposal that a senior officer from each Directorate be assigned to OTR. HE told Proctor that we are apposed to this because we think we are in good liaison with the DDI. We would like one day to have the senior Intelligence School position occupied by a DDI careerist. Mr. Proctor ~~has~~ stated that they were not pushing/ it. It was one of the recommendations of the IG and the DDI had no strong feelings one way or the other. He did not see any need for it either. It might be useful but then again it might not. [REDACTED] indicated it was pretty much of a dead issue and the only reason for his raising it was that [REDACTED] had wanted to know if OTR had discussed this with the top level in the DDI. Mr. Proctor stated that the DDI role in OTR was much less than the DDP and maybe even less than the DDS. They (DDI) would take primarily OTR's recommendations on what was needed. Whatever problems the DDI had, they didn't need a permanent representative. The DDI didn't want to send anyone over who wasn't very good, & it was ~~there~~ their opinion it wouldn't be a full-time job. [REDACTED] indicated that ~~OTR would welcome~~ they were welcome to send anyone over to look at anything.
